PEOPLE

People, We're Just People — Doing What We Like To Do Most

We Are Nothin' Special

But In A Way —

We're Special Too,

'Cause You've Come Here

To Join Us

And To Live

We Do Need You!

Now Somedays For Us

At Times Get Rough

We Even Get The Blues

But When Our Day

Comes To An End

It's Been Made Good

By You!

'Cause

We're People, We're Just People

WE'RE JUST PEOPLE!

Getting Together With Other People — Liftin' Our Voices To The Lord

Doing What We Like To Do Most!

Lyrics Used
By Permission
Dony McGuire

If I could speak with tongues of men and of angels,
but have not love,
I am a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal.

And if I have prophetic powers, and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but have not love, I am nothing.

If I give away all I have,
and if I deliver my body to be burned,

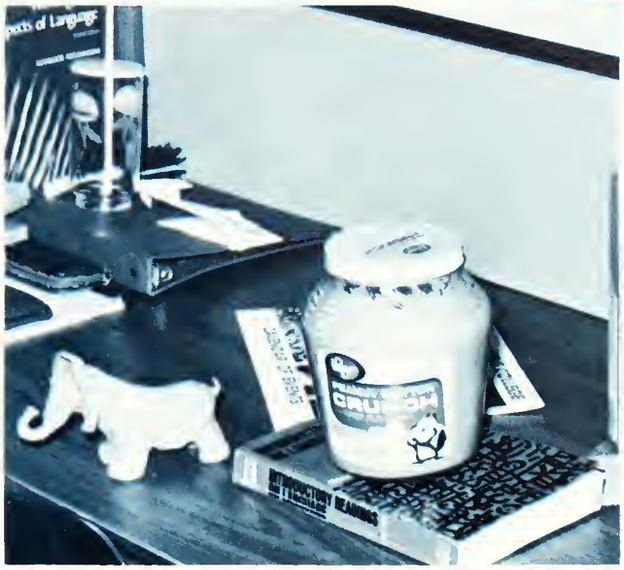
But have not love,
I gain nothing.

Love is patient and kind;
Love is not jealous or boastful;
It is not arrogant or rude.

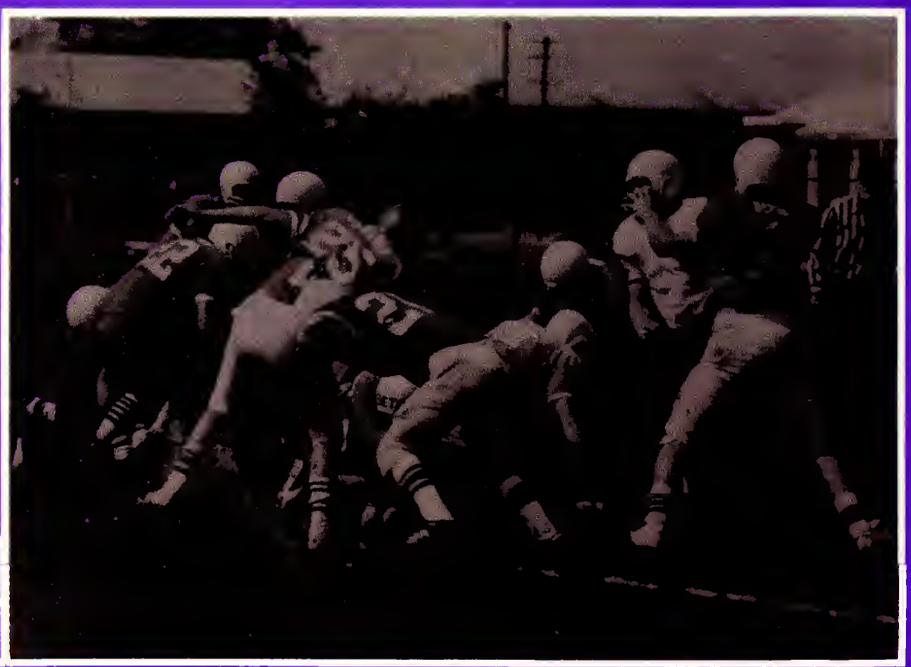
Love does not insist on its own way;
It is not irritable or resentful;
It does not rejoice at wrong, but rejoices in the right.

Love bears all things, believes all things,
Hopes all things, endures all things
Love never ends . . .

As for prophecies, they will pass away;
As for tongues, they cease;
As for knowledge, it will pass away.

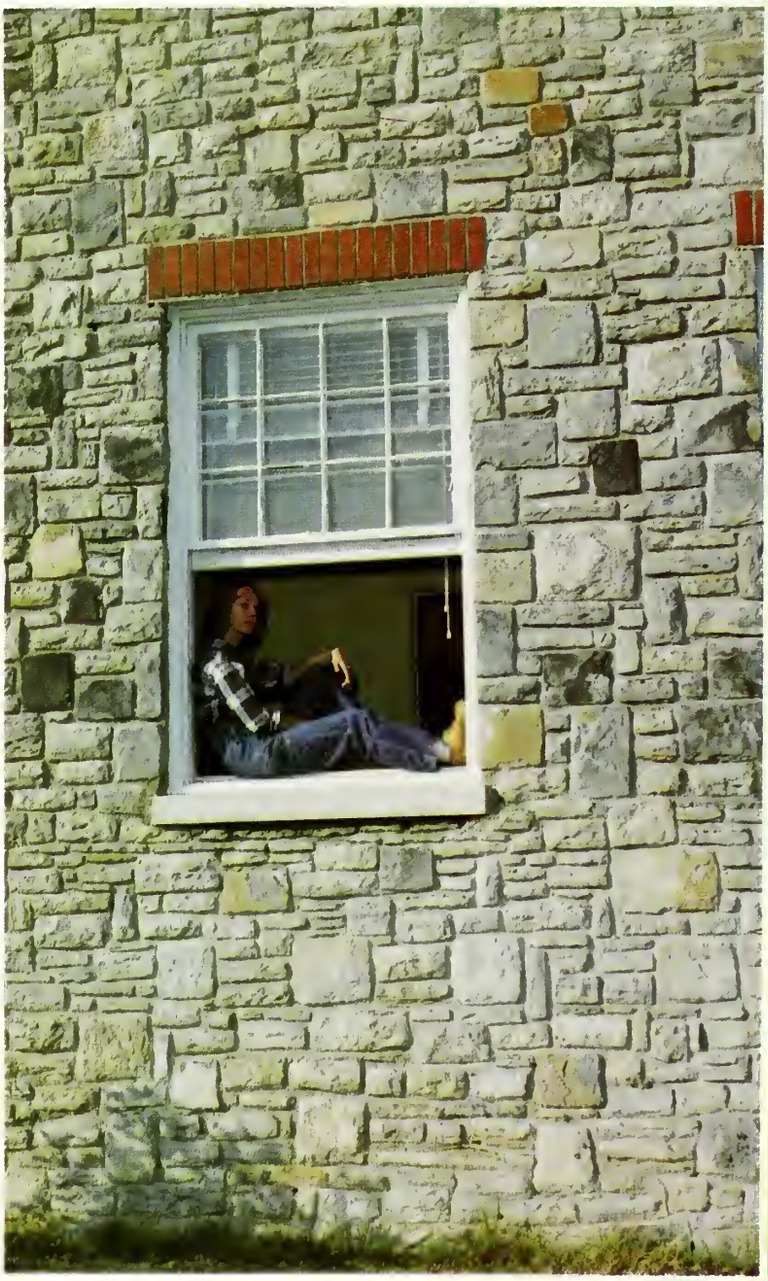


For our knowledge is imperfect and our prophecy is imperfect; but when the perfect comes, the imperfect will pass away.



When I was a child, I spoke like a child, I thought like a child,
I reasoned like a child;
When I became a man, I gave up childish ways.

For now we see in a mirror dimly,
But then face to face.



Now I know in part;
Then I shall understand fully,
Even as I have been fully understood.

So faith, hope, love abide these three;
But the greatest of these is Love.

DEDICATION

HARPER COLE, EXECUTIVE V-PRESIDENT

DEDICATION

WILMA GALLUP, SCHOOL NURSE

When you have shut your doors, and darkened your room, remember never to say that you are alone; for God is within and your genius is within, and what need have they of light to see what you are doing?

-Epictetus

If you see a man untorrified in the midst of danger, untouched by desires, happy in adversity, peaceful amid the storm, will you not say; A divine power has descended upon the man?
Just as the rays of the sun do indeed touch the earth, but still abide at the source from which they are sent; even so the great and hallowed soul does indeed associate with us, but still cleaves to its origin; on that source it depends, thither it turns its gaze and strives to go.

-Seneca

A Bag of Tools

Isn't it strange
That princes and kings,
And clowns that caper
In sawdust rings,
And common people
Like you and me
Are builders for eternity?

Each is given a bag of tools,
A shapeless mass,
A book of rules;
And each must make-
Ere life is flown-
A stumbling block
Or a steppingstone.

-R. I. Sharpe

Wait On

To talk with God,
No breath is lost-
Talk on!
To walk with God,
No strength is lost-
Walk on!
To wait on God,
No time is lost-
Wait on!

From the Hindi

If I knew you and you knew me-
If both of us could clearly see,
And with an inner sight divine
The meaning of your heart and mine-
I'm sure that we would differ less
And clasp our hands in friendliness;
Our thoughts would pleasantly agree
If I knew you and you knew me.

If I knew you and you knew me,
As each one knows his own self, we
Could look each other in the face
And see therein a truer grace.
Life has so many hidden woes,
So many thorns for every rose;
The "why" of things our hearts would see,
If I knew you and you knew me.

-Nixon Waterman

Beauty

Our Creator would never have made such lovely days and have given us the deep hearts to enjoy them, above and beyond all thought, unless we were meant to be immortal.

-Nathaniel Hawthorne

Thou Sparest All

For the whole world before thee is as a little grain of the balance, yea, as a drop of the morning dew that falleth down upon the earth, But thou hast mercy upon all; for thou canst do all things, and winkest at the sins of men, because they should amend. For thou lovest all the things that are, and abhorrest which thou hast made: for never wouldst thou have made anything, if thou hadst hated it. And how could anything have endured, if it had not been thy will? or been preserved, if not called by thee? But thou sparest all: for they are thine, O Lord, thou lover of souls.

-The Apocrypha

Man

What a piece of work is a man! how noble in reason! how infinite in faculty! in form and moving how express and admirable! in action how like an angel! in apprehension how like a god! the beauty of the world! the paragon of animals!

-William Shakespeare

We are only two and yet our howling
Can unicycle the world's end.
Frightened, you are my only friend.
And frightened, we are everyone.
Someone must take a stand.
Coward, take my coward's hand.

-Eve Merriam

The more faithfully you listen to the voice within you, the better you will hear what is sounding outside. And only he who listens can speak. Is this the starting point of the road towards the union of your two dreams-to be allowed in clarity of mind to mirror life and in purity of heart to mold it?

-Dag Hammarskjold

"Friendship needs no words. It is solitude delivered from the anguish of loneliness."

-Dag Hammarskjold

IN MEMORIAL TO . . .

They say that heaven's pretty and livin' here is too.
But if they said that I would have to choose between the two
I'd go home, going home
Where I belong.

Sometimes when I'm dreaming
It comes as no surprise
That if you'll look and see the homesick feelin' in my eyes
I'm goin' home, I'm goin' home
Where I belong.

While I'm here I'll serve Him gladly
And sing Him all these songs
I'm here, but not for long.

When I'm feelin' lonely
And when I'm feelin blue,
It's such a joy to know that
I am only passin' through
I'm headed home, I'm goin' home,
Where I belong.

One day I'll be sleepin'
When Death knocks on my door,
And I'll awake to find that
I'm not homesick anymore,
'Cause I'll be home, I'll be home,
Where I belong.

JR.-SR. BANQUET 1977 THIS ONE'S FOR YOU

The 1977 Junior Senior Banquet was held at Nashville's Sheraton Inn South. Barry Manilow's well-known hit, "This One's For You," was the theme of the banquet.

The Junior class worked long and hard to see the banquet dreams fall into place. They were able to bring in the well-known singer Oliver. He is most popular in the contemporary-rock field. One of his most famous hits was "Jean."

The evening was topped off by the traditional Senior picture slide presentation. It provided quite a few laughs and grand memories of yesteryears to see those old familiar photographs.

An Anxious Embrace

ATLANTA—Jimmy Carter gets a hug from his wife ... as they ... early returns come in on ...

JIMMY WON!

There's no reason why our government can't work efficiently and effectively.

We can no longer drift along with a complicated, confused, overlapping and wasteful federal bureaucracy.

As President, Jimmy Carter will establish efficient, economical, purposeful and manageable methods of operation. He will see that business, labor, agriculture, education, science and government do not struggle in isolation from one another, but strive toward mutual goals and shared opportunities. With aggressive new Democratic leadership, we can bring order out of chaos.

Carter Sweeps Vote in State

By FRANK SUTHERLAND

Jimmy Carter swept Tennessee with more than 55% of the vote yesterday, returning the state to the Democratic presidential column for the first time in 12 years.

Early returns showed Carter showing significant strength against President Ford in parts of East Tennessee and easily leading Ford in Middle and West Tennessee.

WITH 95% of the state's votes tabulated, the unofficial total was:

Carter 747,187
Ford 589,667

According to the early returns, Carter was leading in six of the state's ... staying relatively close in traditionally Republican East Tennessee.

Carter's best showing in East Tennessee was in the 2nd District where in the early returns he was trailing Brock by only a few thousand votes.

IN NASHVILLE, with 100% of the votes tabulated, Carter had 96,781 to 58,472 for President Ford. Carter built up similar margins in the 4th, 6th and 7th districts. In the 4th District, Carter was leading Ford by a 2-to-1 majority.

Carter appeared headed toward at least matching the landslide margin Lyndon Johnson got in Tennessee in 1964 when he received 55% of the vote.

"We expected it," said a resigned Dortch Oldham, chairman of the Tennessee Republican party.

"WE NEVER saw a poll that said anything ... ferent. If Howard ... had been on the tick... would have carried ... nessee."

Not long ago, Carter was asked about his life before the campaign.

"I'll say this," he replied. "It was quieter then."

Less tiring?

"Yes, definitely."

More fun?

Carter grinned. "Well, winning is much more fun than anything."

WASHINGTON (AP) — President-elect Jimmy Carter's long, once-solitary journey from Plains, Ga., will carry him to the White House in January with a victory forged from the traditional Democratic party coalition of the Old South and industrial North.

Carter was declared the victor over President Gerald Ford early today when his electoral vote total reached 272, two more than the 270 needed for election. Wisconsin was the state that put Carter over the top.

The latest returns showed Carter carrying 23 states with 272 electoral votes. Ford carried 24 states with 186 electoral votes.

The popular vote totals from 97 per cent of the nation's precincts gave Carter 39,077,606 and Ford 37,230,761.

"I pray that I can live up to your confidence and never disappoint you," Carter told jubilant supporters in Atlanta after the results were clear. "It's time for us to get together, to correct our mistakes, to answer difficult questions and to make our nation great."

Carter praised Ford as "the most formidable opponent that anyone could possibly have." And he called his defeated opponent "a good and decent ...

BULLETIN

Democratic challenger Jimmy Carter won an apparent victory in his quest for the White House early today when he was declared winner in Mississippi and gained the necessary electoral votes for the presidency.

Carter Finally Finds Job After 22 Months

... LYNNE OLSON
Associated Press Writer

PLAINS, Ga. (AP) — He began as "Jimmy Who?" with a campaign against the establishment; now he's president-elect and will head the establishment.

Even as "Jimmy Who," James Earl Carter Jr. always said he never intended to lose.

"When I began, I didn't have much money," he says. "I didn't have a built-in campaign organization or live in a media center. I didn't hold public office. Not many people knew who I was."

But now, 22 months after he announced his presidential candidacy on Dec. 12, 1974, nearly everybody knows. Carter can thank shrewd planning, appeal to a cross-section of voters and ...

In the same soft-spoke... he uses to teach his Bapt... class, he kept repeating ... if government is good, the people are good, but those who run the government have lessened the respect it earns.

"I'll never tell a lie," Carter promised during the primaries.

We stand at a turning point. At the dawn of our nation's third century, this year's election could very well be the most important in our history. It can determine whether the United States will go forward to right its wrongs, establish justice, and once again have a government of, by, and for the people. It all depends on you. You can help to restore Democratic leadership and sensitive direction to this country.

Everybody always asks me how I got to play so fine —
And friends, I'm gonna tell ya' it really did take some time.

Yes, after years and years of practice and a case of real bad knees,
While the other guys were out playin' with the football —
I was home bangin' on the keys.

And it got me right where I am, this is me playing the piano —
I hope ya' like what I do it's for you and I'll try and sing right too.

I guess I'm really very lucky that I've got this thing to play —
'Cause it can really make me feel good even when it's cloudy and grey.

Yes, after years and years of practice and awful allergies that made me sneeze —
And now the other guys are out playin' with their girlfriends —
And I was still bangin' on the keys.

And it got me right where I am, this is me playing the piano —
I hope ya' like what I do it's for you and I'll try and sing right too.

CREATING BEAUTIFUL MUSIC IS THE GOAL FOR SENIOR RECITALIST

Kathy Lovell Parker
Vocalist

Tim Pusey
Vocalist

What we see here of this world is but an expression of God's will, so to speak — a beautiful earth and sky and sea — beautiful affections and sorrows, wonderful changes and developments of creation, suns rising, stars shining, birds singing, clouds and shadows changing and fading, people loving each other, smiling and crying, the multiplied phenomena of Nature, multiplied in fact and in fancy, in Art and Science, in every way that a man's intellect or education can be brought to bear. And who is to say that we are to ignore all this, or not value them and love them, because there is another unknown world yet to come? Why, that unknown future world is but a manifestation of God Almighty's will, and a development of Nature, neither more nor less than this in which we are, and an angel glorified or a sparrow on a gutter are equally part of His creation. The light upon all the saints in Heaven is just as much and no more God's work, and the sun which shall shine tomorrow upon this infinitesimal speck of creation.

LEADERS

DR. AND MRS. MARK R. MOORE

A PRESIDENT WITH A VISION FOR PEOPLE

SONS AND DAUGHTERS

He'll be proud of — ,

As the youth gave the minister his lunch he said, "I heard the Leader ask Phillip about food. I would like to share my lunch with him."

The boy's clothes revealed his poverty. One look at the barley bread and you knew it was food of the poor. BUT, when Jesus prayed, blessed the loaves, and divided the boy's lunch, the multitude was filled. Something MUST have happened to the youth. He knew he was useful. He was an individual — a person who had a part in helping others.

What became of him? Where did he go? Back to the streets of poverty, or on to a life devoted to service. We can only surmise. But as good proof, we KNOW that when Jesus touches lives, PEOPLE ARE DIFFERENT.

Out of my bondage, sorrow, and night,
Jesus, I come; Jesus I come.
Into Thy freedom, gladness, and light,
Jesus, I come to Thee.
Out of my sickness, into Thy health,
Out of my want and into Thy wealth,
Out of my sin and into Thy self,
Jesus, I come to Thee.
— Sleeper

Andrew found the lad. He must have talked with him. He LED him to the Master. That is when the boy shared his lunch with Jesus. Andrew previously led another — his brother, Simon — to Jesus. We are well aware of the tremendous change which took place in Simon Peter, and what a magnificient life he lived for others. Andrew, Simon and Jesus. Now it's Andrew, a youth and Jesus. The youth could have become another servant like Peter.

What persons! What opportunities! But an honest appraisal will reveal that they had no more possibilities than a dozen, or even hundreds of students who are at Trevecca this year.

A faculty member, a student and Jesus. PEOPLE — committed — concerned — obedient — transformed. PEOPLE helping transform others through living, caring and sharing a life, with talents blessed of God, to the glory of His Son, Jesus.

Your touch was what I longed for,
You have given life to me.
I will serve Thee because I love Thee,
You have given life to me.
— Gaither

Some of the professors were asked to give an expression of themselves. Many found the way to do it was by a favorite quotation. Here are some of your professors telling a bit of their own mottos in life.

Dr. Charles Childers:

"The above all: to their own self be true, and it must follow, as the night the day, thou canst not then be false to any man." — Shakespeare in Hamlet

Bob Brower:

"The most I can do for my friend is simply to be his friend." — Henry David Thoreau

Vivian Felix expresses in her own words:

"What wild dream would I pursue if dreams could be woven into substance? I should be a true aficionado and run the narrow, cobblestone streets of Pamplona before the corrida. Entering the redondel, sword and mulsta well under control, I would strive for 'purity of line through the maximum of exposure,' (Ernest Hemingway in the lidia of the toro. But, in acutality, this maybe what teaching is all about."

MATHEMATICS

A couple of the professors here were questioned. It is really quite interesting what you do learn about a person when you take time to ask and listen. You know of course that you can not always rattle right off the top of your head. Sometimes it may take some thinking on one's own to really realize yourself what you are all about. Now, with all that said, take a look at this:

John Dix of the Science Department said that his ambition in life is to build a strong and effective science department on the campus of Trevecca. His favorite slogan is: "There is but one rule of conduct — Do right!"

Prof. Jerry Costa also of the Science Department told that his motto for life is: "To have knowledge and not use it is worse than not having it."

SCIENCE

Left To Rigth: John Dix, Ann Fuqua, Jerry Costa and John Cummings

RELIGION

Into the Religion Department you get a glimpse of some of the favorite sayings that are a part of these men.

Dr. H. Ray Dunning, "Just one life, 'Twill soon be past. Only what's done for Christ will last." (Author Anonymous)

Dr. Neil Wiseman, "You see things as they are; and ask 'Why?' But I dream things that never were and I ask, 'Why not?'" (Author Anonymous)

Prof. Hall Cauthron believes that new ideas may be God's invitation from my narrowness to His broadness, from my littleness to His greatness. Out of gratitude for what Grace has done for me, today I shall seek to create new worth in someone else who, like me, needs Grace. (Both from E. Stanley Jones)
